MEMORANDA.

What I live for.

I live for those that love me
For those who know me true
For the Heaven that smiles above me
And awaits my spirit too

For the cause that lacks assistance
For the wrong that needs resistance
For the future in the distance.
And the good that I can do

Jewish Proverb.
In all thy works remember thy Creator and thou shalt never sin

Seek not things that are too high and search not into things that are above thy ability but the things that God hath commanded thee think on them always and in many of his works be not curious for it is not necessary for thee to see with thine eyes the things that are hid for the thoughts of mortal men are fearful and our counsel uncertain for the corruptible body is a cloud upon the soul and the earthly habitation presseth down the mind that museth upon many things and barely as we glimpse wisdom & things that are upon earth with labor so we find the things that are before us but the things that are in him who shall search out.

MEMORANDA.

"Schoolmates"
Where are those with whom I've mingled Oft amidst the festive throng
Where are those whom friendship singled Memory sighs "they're gone"

Oft I hear their gentle voices Gentle tones of love and peace
In these dreams my heart rejoices Visions that can never cease
